Dear Harry:

What a nice surprise it was for you to send an uncirculated copy of Louis Jordan's book on Massachusetts silver coinage.. ~~you~~^{you from} should be proud to be so closely associated with the preparation of the book by handling the Hahn collection with such distinction that ~~your~~^{name} ~~is~~ your firm was mentioned multiple times. That is ~~not a~~^{goodwill} ~~is~~ ~~not~~ ~~to~~ ~~be~~ ~~mentioned~~.
 goodwill on ~~the~~^{other} merit, not goodwill developed by advertising.

I have read only sections of the book so far and will slowly try to digest its quantities of scholarly input.

~~What a gift for the gift.~~
 I am writing on a ~~new~~^{unusual phase} ~~phase~~ of the Massachusetts coinage and in due course will send it to you after publication. Jordan has helped me on it already. Thanks for your thoughtfulness.

Cordially,
J,

Dear Larry:

I appreciate your commentary on my Fake Coin Club spoof. It ~~has~~ ^{has already been} submitted to Coin World for republication and they are thinking about it. They have ~~many~~ many advertisers of fakes ~~and~~ so I ~~am~~ wonder what their position will be.

I sincerely appreciate the catalogs of your early English and Spanish collections. The images are ^{all} spectacular as the collections you assembled. ~~It~~ ~~is~~ I have never seen such quality ~~pieces~~ and and wonder why you parted with them.

~~III~~
